

Evening Programming

i ii

iii

Evening programming is a fun, highly interactive way to round out the curriculum during your stay here at the School of Conservation. Our evening programs give students the opportunity to see animals up close, build upon their knowledge of the natural environment, and learn about the native people of New Jersey. Dances are another popular way for students to wind down after a day of classes.

Giselle Smisko	Live Birds of Prey	973-702-1957
Bill Streeter	Live Birds of Prey	570-296-6025
	www.dvrconline.org
David Hulmes	Reptiles and Amphibians	201-332-6970
Bill Boesenberg	Snakes-N-Scales	973-248-9964
	www.snakes-n-scales.com
Jerry Zelenka	A Touch of Nature	973-779-8642
John Serrao	All about Nature	717-894-9791
Richard Wilson	Nature Programs	973-948-7393
John Miller	Pearl Observatory	732-424-1845
George Johnson		908-362-8077
Fred Decker	Variety Show	973-383-2309 or 973-479-9709

Dan Weissman	Chemical Magic	973-570-2882 www.superscienceforkids.com
Rick Molner	Pocono Mountain Music Center	570-698-4200
Vinnie Reo	Wolf Vision	973-300-5479 www.awolf.org
John Kraft	Lenape Lifeways	973-691-2316 www.lenapelifeways.org
Michael Dennis	Traditional Earth Skills	541-740-3000 www.traditionalearthskills.com

ⁱ Image from: Explore Pennsylvania History <http://www.explorepahistory.com/index.php> (Accessed 4/23/08)

ⁱⁱ Image from: Delaware Valley Raptor Center.
<http://www.dvrconline.org/residentbios.html#redtailsthatdontlook> (Accessed 4/23/08)

ⁱⁱⁱ Image from Snakes and Scales and Turtle Tales. http://www.snakes-n-scales.com/critter_credentials.html (Accessed 4/23/08)